

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Object and Plans of the Society.

THE object of the Society is the advancement of Geographical and Statistical Science, by the collection and diffusion of knowledge in those branches.

Among the measures at present contemplated for this purpose, are the following :

1. A collection of the most valuable maps and books of reference on Geography and Statistics, from all countries, to be deposited and kept for public use, under proper regulations.

2. Stated meetings on Thursday of every week (July, August, and September excepted), open to the public, for the reading of valuable papers on Geographical and Statistical subjects, collected from all quarters, with conversational discussions, personal narratives of explorers and travelers, &c.

3. A Bulletin of the Society's transactions and collections, published periodically, furnished to all members, and sent in exchange to kindred institutions in all countries.

4. To obtain, through the kind co-operation of the foreign Ministers and Consuls resident here, the latest, completest, and most authentic information, publications, and public documents, from their respective countries.

5. By correspondence with Missionaries, Officers of the Army and Navy, and others, to increase the extent and accuracy of Geographical and Statistical knowledge.

6. Originating and assisting in explorations of undescribed regions, and in voyages of discovery.

Contributions in aid of these several plans, will be thankfully received and acknowledged, whether of maps and works of reference, papers and communications on topics of interest, recent and reliable information concerning any part of the world, or means to defray the unavoidable expenses of the Society.

CHARTER.

AN ACT to incorporate the American Geographical and Statistical Society, passed April 13, 1854.

The People of the State of New York, Represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

§ 1. George Bancroft, Henry Grinnell, Francis L. Hawks, John C. Zimmerman, Archibald Russell, Joshua Leavitt, William C. H. Waddell, Ridley Watts, S. DeWitt Bloodgood, M. Dudley Bean, Hiram Barney, Alexander J. Cotheal, Luther B. Wyman, John Jay, J. Calvin Smith, Henry V. Poor, Cambridge Livingston, Edmund Blunt, Alexander W. Bradford, and their associates, who are now or may become hereafter associated for the purposes of this act, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of the American Geographical and Statistical Society, for the purpose of collecting and diffusing geographical and statistical information.

§ 2. For the purposes aforesaid the said Society shall possess the general powers and privileges, and be subject to the general liabilities contained in the third title of the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the Revised Statutes, so far as the same may be applicable and may not have been modified or repealed ; but the real and personal estate which the said Society shall be authorized to take, hold, and convey, over and above its library, and maps, charts, instruments, and collections, shall not at any time exceed an amount the clear yearly income of which shall be ten thousand dollars.

§ 3. The officers of the said Society shall be a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Corresponding Secretary, a Recording Secretary, a Librarian, and Treasurer, and such other officers as may from time to time be provided for by the By-Laws of the said Society.

§ 4. The said Society, for fixing the terms of admission of its members for the government of the same, for changing and altering the officers above named, and for the general regulation and management of its transactions and affairs, shall have power to form a code of By-Laws not inconsistent with the laws of this State or of the United States; which code, when formed and adopted at a regular meeting, shall, until modified or rescinded, be equally binding as this act upon the said Society, its officers and its members

§ 5. The Legislature may at any time alter or repeal this act.

§ 6. This act to take effect immediately.

STATE OF NEW YORK, }
Secretary's Office. }

I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and hereby certify the same to be a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole of said original law.

Given under my hand and seal of office, at the city of Albany,
[L. s.] this thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

A. G. JOHNSTON,
Dep. Sec'y of State.

BY-LAWS

OF THE

American Geographical and Statistical Society.

MEMBERS.

I. The Society shall consist of Resident, Corresponding, Honorary, and Ex-officio Members. Corresponding Members shall be limited to those who have advanced, by their publications or services, the Science of Geography or Statistics. Honorary Members, to those who have distinguished themselves in the Science of Geography or Statistics, but at no time to exceed twenty persons. Ex-officio Members shall be, the Foreign Ministers and Consuls resident in the United States, and American Ministers and Consuls resident abroad.

II. Persons desirous of joining the Society as Resident Members, shall be nominated to the Society or the Council in writing, and if recommended by the Council, shall, when elected by the Society, on the payment of the initiation fee of five dollars, become members.

Honorary or Corresponding Members may be elected by the Society, on the recommendation of the Council.

Ex-officio Members shall be enrolled, on their own request, or by vote of the Council; and any Member may, by a unanimous vote of the Society, be elected without reference to the Council.

ANNUAL DUES.

II. The Annual Dues of Resident Members shall be five dollars, payable in advance.

Should any Resident Member refuse to pay the Annual Dues when called upon, or neglect the payment for two years successively, the Council may erase his name from the list of Members.

The Council may at any time, by resolution, remit the initiation and annual dues of any person.

Any member, before the payment of his initiation fee, may become a Life Member upon the payment of the sum of fifty dollars, which shall be deemed to be inclusive of the initiation fee, and all future dues; and any member, subsequently to the payment of his initiation fee, may become a Life Member upon the payment of the sum of fifty dollars, which shall be in lieu of all subsequent annual dues.

OFFICERS.

III. The officers of the Society are—

A PRESIDENT,
THREE VICE-PRESIDENTS,
A FOREIGN CORRESPONDING SECRETARY,
A DOMESTIC CORRESPONDING SECRETARY,
A RECORDING SECRETARY,
AN ASSISTANT RECORDING SECRETARY,
A TREASURER, and A LIBRARIAN.

They shall be elected annually by ballot, and shall hold their offices respectively for one year, and until others shall be chosen in their places.

The officers of the Society shall be members of the Council ex-officio.

ANNUAL MEETING.

IV. The Society shall hold its Annual Meeting on the first Thursday of December, yearly, when the officers and nine members of Council shall be chosen by ballot, a majority of votes being necessary for a choice on the first balloting; but where no choice is effected to any office on the first trial, a further balloting shall take place, at which a plurality of votes shall elect. At such Annual Meeting a written report shall be submitted by the Council of the proceedings of the Society during the past year, and also a written report by the Corresponding Secretaries, Librarian, and Secretaries, in their respective departments.

MONTHLY AND SPECIAL MEETINGS.

V. The Society shall meet regularly for the transaction of business, at its room, on the first Thursday in every month, unless otherwise specially ordered. But the President, or in his absence any of the Vice-Presidents, may, and upon the written request of any fifteen members shall, call a Special Meeting, giving three days' notice thereof in two public newspapers printed in the city of New York, and a special notice of at least three days, sent through the Post-office, to each Resident Member.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

VI. At the regular meetings of the Society, the following shall be the order of business :

1. The reading of the Minutes of the last meeting.
2. Report of the Council.
3. Reports and Communications from officers of the Society.
4. Reports from Committees.
5. Miscellaneous business.
6. Papers read and Addresses delivered before the Society.

QUORUM.

VII. At all meetings of the Society, eight members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

PRESIDING OFFICER.

VIII. The President, or in his absence one of the Vice-Presidents, or in their absence a Chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all the meetings of the Society, and shall have a casting vote. He shall preserve order, and shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Society. He shall also appoint all committees authorized by the Society, unless otherwise specially ordered.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARIES.

IX. The Corresponding Secretaries shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society. They shall have the custody of all letters and communications to the Society, excepting papers read and addresses delivered before the same, which shall be deposited in the library. They shall, at every meeting of the Society, read such letters and communications as they may have received; they shall prepare all letters to be written in connection with the business or objects of the Society, and transmit the same; but the Society may appoint a Committee to prepare a letter or letters on any special occasion. They shall keep, in suitable books to be provided for that purpose, true copies of all letters written on behalf of the Society; and shall carefully preserve the originals of all letters and communications received.

The duties of the Foreign Corresponding Secretary shall be limited to the correspondence with individuals or associate bodies in foreign countries; and those of the Domestic Corresponding Secretary shall, in like manner, be confined to the United States; except that, in the absence of either of these officers, or during a vacancy in either office, its duties shall be performed by the remaining incumbent, until such absence shall terminate, or the vacancy be supplied.

RECORDING SECRETARY.

X. The Recording Secretary shall have the custody of the Seal, Charter, By-Laws, and Records of the Society. He shall, under the direction of the President, or either of the Vice-Presidents, give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society, and attend the same. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society; and shall give notice to the several officers, and to the Trustees and Committees, of all votes, orders, resolves, and proceedings of the Society affecting them, or appertaining to their respective duties.

LIBRARIAN.

XI. The Librarian, under the direction of the Board of Trustees, shall have the charge and superintendence of the rooms, and the custody and arrangement of the books, maps, and other articles belonging to the Library and Collections of the Society. He shall acknowledge the receipt of donations to the Society in his department.

TREASURER.

XII. The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and shall disburse and dispose of the same under the direction of the Council.

COUNCIL.

XIII. The Council shall have the control and management of the affairs, property, and funds of the Society.

Five members shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

They shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur among the Officers or Council of the Society.

They shall make their own by-laws, which shall not be inconsistent with these by-laws.

They shall meet at least once in every month, for the transaction of business, except during the months of July, August, and September.

If any member of the Council shall be absent from its meetings for three successive months, without reasons satisfactory to the Council, his place may be declared vacant by a vote of the Council; but this rule shall not apply to the President or Vice-Presidents.

Any officer or member of the Council may be removed from his place by the Council, for cause, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting, provided such two-thirds shall be equal in number to a majority of the whole Council.

The Council shall not make any contract involving a liability exceeding the sum of five hundred dollars, nor make any sale or disposition of the property of the Society exceeding in value that sum, without an approving vote of the Society at a regular meeting.

No debt shall be contracted whereby the aggregate debts of the Society shall be increased more than $1,000 above the unappropriated funds at the time in the treasury, and no debt shall be incurred until it shall have been approved by the Council.

SECTIONS.

XIV. It shall be the duty of the Council to distribute into departments the various subjects which properly belong to Geographical and Statistical science, each of which departments shall be confided to a section of the Society; and the Council shall appoint annually a suitable person as chairman of each section, and prescribe from time to time such rules and regulations for the government of the sections as may to the Council seem advisable.

Any member of the Society may attach himself to such section or sections, as he may wish, by giving notice of his desire to the Recording Secretary, or to the chairman of such section.

It shall be the duty of the chairman of each section to induce members of the Society to become associated with such sections as they take an interest in, that by mutual labor and co-operation they may advance the cause of science.

No debt nor expenditure shall be incurred by any section without a previous appropriation by the Council; but the members of any section may raise money for their own objects, and expend the same without the authority of the Council.

The Council shall regulate the manner and order in which the sections shall report to the Society.

ALTERATION OF BY-LAWS.

XV. No alteration in the By-Laws of the Society shall be made, unless such alteration shall have been openly proposed at a previous meeting and entered on the Minutes, with the name of the member proposing the same, and unless it shall be adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting of the Society.

By-Laws of the Council.

1. The Council shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary.
2. Stated meetings of the Council shall be held at the rooms of the Society every Thursday, excepting during the months of July, August, and September, and at such other times as the Council may determine.
3. Special meetings may be called at any time, by the Secretary, by direction of the Chairman, or upon the written request of five members of the Council.
4. The order of business shall be as follows :
 1. Reading of the Minutes.
 2. Report of Treasurer.
 3. Report of the Librarian and Superintendent.
 4. Reports of Committees.
 5. Consideration of Nominations.
 6. Unfinished business.
 7. Miscellaneous business.
 8. Papers and Communications to the Council may be read at any time, at the discretion of the Chairman.
5. There shall be four Standing Committees, to be called :
 1. Committee on Topics and Proceedings.
 2. Committee on Printing.
 3. Committee on the Library and Finance.
 4. Committee on Recent Discoveries and Publications.
6. The Committee on Topics and Proceedings shall procure suitable papers to be read before the Society, or before the Council, and recommend topics of discussion at the several meetings.
7. The Committee on Printing shall prepare the Bulletin, and superintend the printing and publication thereof. They shall also prepare for printing, all blanks, diplomas, notices, and other documents required for the transaction of the Society's business.

8. The Committee on the Library and Finance shall have charge of the property of the Society; shall make the requisite arrangements for the preservation thereof; arrange the hours during which the rooms shall be opened; shall provide for the accommodation of all meetings of, and lectures before, the Society or Council.
9. The Committee on Recent Discoveries and Publications shall procure and present to the Society or Council, from time to time, notices, abstracts, and reviews of recent books, reports, tables, maps, and other documents relating to Geography or Statistics.
10. The Standing Committees shall each consist of three members, to which shall be added the Chairman and Recording Secretary as ex-officio members. Two members shall constitute a quorum.
11. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to call the attention of the Council to the continued absence of any member for three successive months, and to submit to the Council the propriety of acting under the By-Law of the Society provided for such cases.
12. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a record of the names of those present at each meeting of the Council.
13. Special meetings of the Council may always be held after meetings of the Society, without further notice.
14. These By-Laws may be temporarily suspended, by the vote of the majority of the members present at any meeting; but no amendment or addition thereto shall be made, except by a vote of a majority of the members of the Council, at a meeting subsequent to one at which notice of such amendment or addition shall have been given.
